1 V-Table by Tacchini

Xavier Lust achieved the distinctive base of his ultra-minimalist table for residential patios and outdoor cafés by folding a single sheet of metal. tacchini.it

2 Cabana by Gandia Blasco

This A-frame respite from the sun has an anodized aluminum frame covered in plastic fabric, and stands 2.5 metres wide by 3.5 metres tall. A smaller version functions as a change room. gandiablasco.com

3 Rusa by Design Within Reach

Evoking a barn feel, KAA Design's collection includes these tables made with responsibly harvested teak as well as chairs in Greenguard-certified Sunbrella mesh. dwr.com

4 Carpino by B&B Italia

Antonio Citterio's 1.0-by-2.5-metre table has a white aluminum frame topped with ipe slats in varying widths, making for a rustic yet chic aesthetic. bebitalia.it

5 Q Zone by All+

This modular cabana can house anything from a retail space to a small kitchen. The frame, in anodized or lacquered aluminum, is topped with a fixed or removable fabric roof. allplus.eu

6 Pattern by Emu

Arik Levy conveys "a structural idea of transparency and lightness" with his press-moulded steel tables and chairs perforated with an asymmetric pattern. emuamericas.com

7 Falster by Ikea

While it may look like a simple wooden table, Falster is made with an aluminum frame treated to a polyester powder-coat finish and polystyrene slats. The lightweight, 1.6-metre-long piece is easy to clean and weather resistant. ikea.com
