

Designer Takes

These Are Designers' Favorite Gardening Shops

From a "menagerie" in Birmingham, Alabama, to a Hudson Valley family farm, designers share go-to spots for gardening essentials

By Katherine Burns Olson

June 18, 2020

Designers are often called on to pick perfect plants, so it's no surprise that they would know the best gardening shops from coast to coast—and even abroad—for sourcing said greenery. Cataloguing the top spots, from Maryline Damour's favorite Hudson Valley farm to Whitney Jones's plant experts in New Orleans, AD PRO's latest survey queried a handful of our favorite designers about their must-visit gardening shops. The result? A list fit for beginner plant people and green thumbs alike. Happy gardening!

Michael McGowan, KAA Design Group

Inner Gardens in Culver City has the best selection of interesting and one of a kind garden pieces: stone vessels, pottery, rare ephemera. 5838 Perry Dr., Culver City, CA 90232

Rolling Greens Nursery Home and Garden in Culver City has great interior plant selection and is the best for finding unique arrangements for that special gift or garden focal point. 9528 Jefferson Blvd., Culver City, CA 90232

Marina del Rey Garden Center always has the latest and greatest selection. I often walk the nursery at lunch to see what is currently in bloom and how different plants look throughout the year. 13198 Mindanao Way, Marina del Rey, CA 90292